Irene McIntosh Wilson

May 7, 1938 – November 21, 2024

Irene McIntosh Wilson (née Batchelor), a loving wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, sister and loyal friend. Born May 7, 1938, in Dundee, Scotland, Irene and her husband Alfred immigrated to Canada in 1963 and settled in Richmond, BC, in 1971. Irene went on to make her mark in mining, forging a successful career in a male-dominated field. Irene always found time to give and was a generous philanthropist to many important causes, including the BC and Canadian Cancer Societies. In business and in life, Irene will be remembered for her generosity, tenacity, and tireless work ethic. She was predeceased by her husband Alfred (2015) and her brother Jack, and is survived by her sons, Jeffrey (Jennifer) and Mark, and her grandchildren Emily, Trevor and Callum. Irene will also be missed by her sisters Margaret and Liz; her brother Jim (Margaret); and her many nieces, nephews, friends, neighbours and former colleagues in Canada and Scotland.

A Scottish Legacy

A Scottish heart, a love so vast

A great person, from first to last

Their kindness shone, a beacon bright

A guiding star, through darkest nights

They stood for truth, embraced the weak

Their love, a force, a river deep

A life of honor, compassion, and grace

Our dear friend, forever embraced

We'll celebrate the life they led

A love unbroken, a path well-tread

My dear friend, forever near

A Scottish legacy, in memory clear.
