The Day God Called You Home

God looked around his Garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain.
And knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw your path was difficult, he closed you tired eyes,
He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.

When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain,
We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.

You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide,
You live on through your children, you're always by our side.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.

Andre's Life Story

It is with great sadness and love that we announce the passing of André Edmund Thompson on September 12, 2025, at the age of 81, born December 25, 1943, on Long Island, Bahamas. André grew up in Nassau, Bahamas, where he began a life grounded in family, faith, hard work, and a touch of mischief.

André was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He will be remembered for his honor, loyalty, and the way he lived each day with love and respect for those around him.

He had a gift for making people feel cared for. He never turned his back on anyone, and he showed up for his family no matter the challenge. His big laugh, his unmistakable smile, and his strong presence will be deeply missed—but even more lasting is the legacy of love he leaves behind.

Above all, André's greatest pride and joy was the life he shared with his beloved wife, Allison. Together, they built a home filled with love, laughter, and warmth, a place where family and friends were always welcome. They enjoyed traveling, celebrating milestones, and creating memories that will be cherished for generations. Allison passed away on February 25, 2019, and we take comfort in knowing that André is now reunited with her. Their steady support, joy in life's simple moments, and unconditional love inspired everyone who knew them.

André is survived by his loving children, his brother and sisters, grandchildren, and nieces and nephews. His memory will live on in the hearts of his family and all who were blessed to know him.
