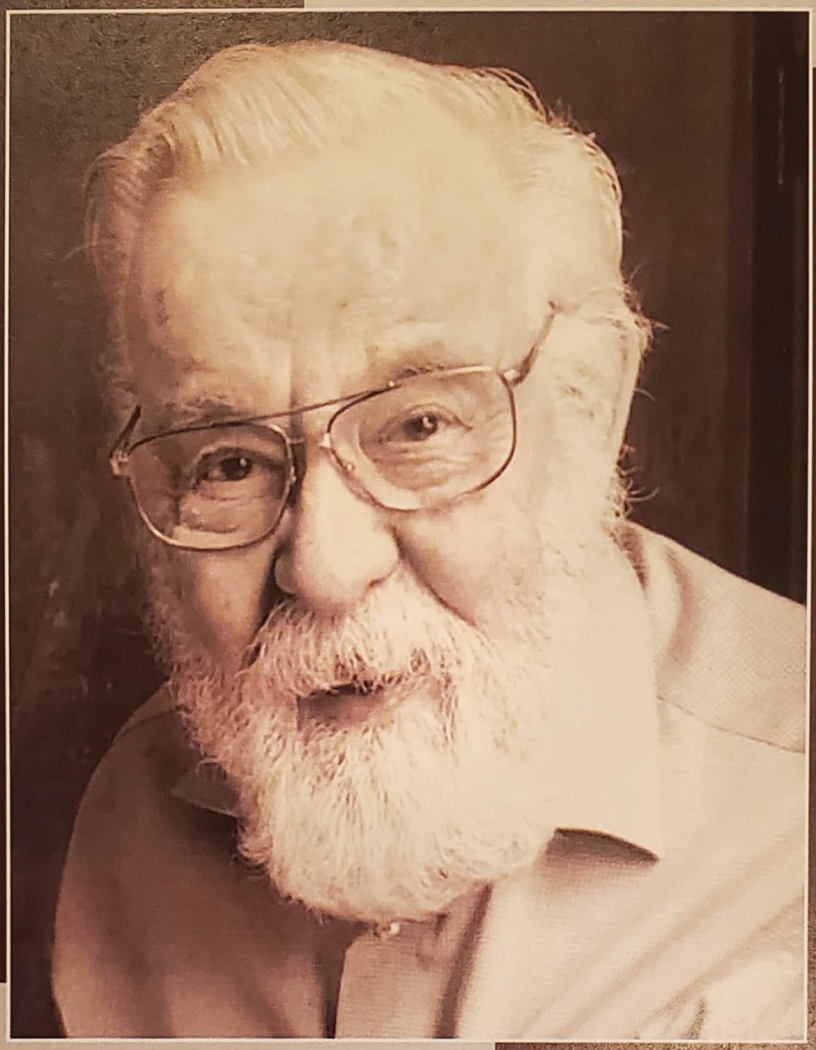
Melvin Jack Shelley ("Mel"), 93, passed away peacefully at AgeCare Carlton in Burnaby on October 24, 2025, surrounded by family.

Mel is survived by his three sons, Leigh, Scott, and Todd; his daughter-in-law, Debra (Leigh); his three grandchildren, Nolan & Trenton (Leigh) and Evan (Todd); and his devoted longtime caregiver, Cora. He is predeceased by his wife, Mary Ann, and daughter, Maurya; his Aunt Gwynne; and a great many other beloved family members.

His loss will be felt by many—but his memory and influence will remain a gift to us all.



"Watch your words from day-to-day,
keep them soft and sweet;
you never know, in the end,
which ones you'll have to eat."
