Safely Home

I am home in heaven, dear ones,
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
every restless tossing passed.
I am now at peace forever,
safely home in heaven at last.
There is still work waiting for you,
so you must not idly stand.
Do it now, while life remaineth,
you shall rest in God's own land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home.
Ah, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Gerald's Life Story

Gerry John Lolacher April 9, 1938 – November 18, 2025

Gerry John Lolacher was born on April 9, 1938, in Limerick, Saskatchewan, to Sigmund and Helen Lolacher (née Mergen). He passed away on November 18, 2025. At Chilliwack General Hospital.

Gerry enjoyed the simple and joyful things in life: watching football, spending peaceful days fishing, riding his bicycle, and being surrounded by family and friends. His faith was an important part of his life. For many years, he spent his Sundays at church and served as an usher in his younger days at St. Mary's Church in Chilliwack.

After the passing of his father, Gerry lived with his cousin Fay (Norman) Foraie, who provided a supportive and loving home. For the past six years, he lived with his caregiver, Evelyn, whose compassion and care brought him comfort and companionship.

We take comfort in knowing that this was a happy day for Gerry—reunited in Heaven with his dad and his mom. Though our hearts are heavy, we will deeply miss his gentle presence, warm smile, and the quiet joy he brought to our lives.

We will miss you, Gerry.
