Forever IN OUR Hearts

Margaret Joy Milner

Why did you leave today
We are not ready for this sorrow
When spring is about to blossom
Couldn't you have waited til tomorrow
Just to see your smile again
As your hands reach the soil below and plant the seeds of love once more so we could watch them grow
We will miss you more then ever
And know your pain has gone away
You will always be in our mind tomorrow
And so much in our hearts today.
